

Okay, FCC. Have you ever heard of free trade? If the NAB members cannot make its product desirable to the public and XM and Sirius can, good for them !!! The NAB members need to provide a service and product that the public wants. Otherwise, don't let their considerable political clout keep us from getting information from whatever source we choose.

Don't cop to the lobbying and money-tossing NAB.